	Examiner Yehdega Retta	Art Unit 3622

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This office action is responsive to the Request for Continued Examination filed February 28, 2007. Claim 33 is currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Meyer et al. (US 6,915,271).

Regarding claim 33, Meyer teaches offering by a sales system of a first party (merchants) items for sale at a sales price amount; providing a browsable catalog for searching the items (item of vendors providing incentives) (see fig. 31-35 col. 39 line 55 to col. 41 line 22) receiving online purchase request from a buyer for at least one item (buy now); associating a promotion with the item to be purchased, the promotion having a promotion amount (see fig. 19-22, 25-30, 33); responding to the online purchase request by collecting from the buyer a purchase amount corresponding to the sales price amount less the promotion amount (see col. 41 line 66 to col. 42 line 25) and facilitating payment of a reimbursement amount corresponding to the promotion amount to the first party (see col. 44 line 53 to col. 45 line 18).

Art Unit: 3622

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed February 28, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant asserts that claim 33 requires a "browsable catalog for searching the items" offered for sale and the section of the Meyer reference in which the Office relies upon discloses an online merchant that offers goods for sale. Applicant further states because it is not necessary for an online merchant to offer browsable catalogs for the items he or she sells, this disclosure in the Meyer reference does not, by itself, inherently disclose the claimed feature. Examiner respectfully disagrees. Meyer provides a browsable page (see fig. 33) where consumer can search for an item with incentive (discount) (see fig. 33 and 35); selecting from all the incentives (items related with the incentives) provides or user selecting categories of incentives or incentives from particular vendors to be displayed and user selecting the item for purchase (see also col. 39 line 55 to col. 40 line 67). Therefore, Meyer provides browsable catalog for searching an item to purchase.
